SHAW AT NEW YORK.

Secretary of the Treasury Confers with Federal Officials.

NEW YORK, March 11 .- Secretary of the Treasury Shaw arrived here to-day from Washington. He visited the subtreasury shortly before the opening hour and conferred briefly with Acting Assistant Treasurer Rentz and Cashier Marlor. The secretary also conferred with Collector of Customs Stranahan. Concerning his visit Secretary Shaw said: "I am not here especially to discuss the money question with the bankers. I have no opinion to express regarding the situation. The primary cause of my visit was to discuss certain details of customs procedure with Collector Stranahan. There is no question of bond interest anticipation before me. In fact, I know of no need for it. I do not which probably will be quite brief."

The secretary left to-night for the South on a pleasure trip and will return to Wash-

PRICES GENERALLY HIGHER AT CLOSE, AFTER MANY CHANGES.

Monetary Conditions Continue as the Dominant Market Influence-Heavy Foreign Buying of Shares.

NEW YORK, March 11 .- The constant fluctuations in to-day's stock market reflected a very unsettled and uncertain state of mind on the part of the professional trading element, and it required the utmost agility by that part of the professionals known as scalpers to follow price changes. The average level, however, was gradually lifted and the market closed with one of the upward flurries in progress and at about the top level of the day. There was a sensible relaxation of the pressure of forced liquidation, caused by the recent calling of loans by the banks, and some recovery due to the covering of short contracts by bears, was, therefore, normal. Loans on call were made during the most active period of the day's market at 51/2 per cent., and 6 per cent. was the maximum. Foreign money lenders were disposed to hold firmly for a 6 per cent. rate, but borrowers showed less urgency to secure funds, especially for the longer periods and contented themselves with loans for three to four months where no concession was allowed for the six months period. There was nothing to show the source of this relief to the money situation, unless it might be the result of the liquidation in the stock market. The higher interest rate has resulted in some lending for the account of interior institutions, which are also reported to be calling some loans at home for the purpose of making these loans in Wall street. Sterling Exchange was considerably firmer and there was quite a notable falling off in the offerings of loan bills. The advance in money rates in London and the jump of sterling at Paris of one centime showed the obstacles arising to the extensive borrowing abroad for account of New York, which has been in progress. The subtreasury also continues its inroad on the New York money supply, the loss to that institution yesterday amounting to $672,000. This brings ation were in contemplation.

A turn against the shorts in Metropolitan Street-railway was also a factor. Official denials of published charges against the financial accounting of the company was the basis of the strong upward movement In that stock. The advance in the price of copper gave an additional impetus to Amalgamated. The conviction that treasury measures would relieve the money market seemed to be especially strong in for-eign money centers and induced buying on the New York Exchange of stocks to the extent of upword of 50,000 shares. This was an important influence in the early firmness. Nothing was learned up to the close of the market of the details of any measures to be adopted by the Treasury De-

UNION STOCKYARDS, INDIANAPOLIS, March 11.-Cattle-Receipts, 1,100; shipments, 200. The marketing of cattle is of little larger volume, the receipts thus far this week showing an increase of about 100 over the same time last week and 900 over the corresponding time a year ago. The receipts to-day were the largest for some time past and show a gain of nearly 200 over a week ago and 600 over a year ago. Practically all kinds were represented except that there were no strictly top export steers. A number of the offerings were heavy enough to have sold at top prices, but they were lacking in quality or finish. The market opened with only fair competition in the steer department, and at the start practically all bids were considered lower. Salesmen were reluctant in accepting prices offered, and the result was a very slow trade throughout the day. If any different. slow trade throughout the day. The market for stockers and feeding cattle continues reasonably active, and sales are usually at steady to strong prices. In the market for female butcher cattle a few dealers reported prices steady, but a good many reported a decline of 10c from yesterday and it was evident that there was a weaker undertone. For the week thus far the receipts of hogs indicate a decrease of 1,500 compared with the same time last week, but a little improvement over the last week, but a little improvement over the corresponding time a year ago. The receipts to-day were again small, but almost as large as a week ago, and fully 1,000 larger than a year ago. The early supply was exhausted in good season, and there were very few late arrivals to test the late market, but the last sales made were firm at opening prices. The receipts to-day were larger than a week ago and a year ago, but a small part of the arrivals were on the market. There were not enough to interest even local butchers, much less accommodate shippers. Quotations: Horses-The receipts of horses for the regular sale of the Blair-Baker Horse Company were comparatively liberal, about 400 head having arrived, against 275 last week and 450 the same week a year ago. There was a good variety of animals represented, but, as expected at this season of the year, work horses predominated. The quality was as good as the average of regular sales recently. There was a very large attendance of buyers and a good demand from practically all sources, but principally from Eastern centers and rural districts. The bidding from start to finish was active, and with strong competition the market was characterized by quick sales. Prices in a general way were strong compared with those prevailing recently, and generally the market was considered as good as it has been at any time this season. There were a number of extra good horses in the consignments that sold from $150 to $200, but a large proportion of the chunks are selling from $110 to $140, and smaller horses from $50 to $100. AIDS BULLISH STATISTICS TO SEND THE PRICE HIGHER.

All Grains Up, Gains Ranging from 1-Se in Oats to 1 1-Se in Wheat-Provisions Steady at a Decline.

CHICAGO, March 11.-Statistics were decidedly favorable to the bulls in the wheat pit to-day, and prices ruled strong, May closing ic to 116c higher. Corn was 14c and oats were 1/3c higher. Provisions were easier, and the close was unchanged to 71/20

There was a marked improvement in trading in wheat, and prices had an upward tendency. The opening was easier on the bearish government report, showing a large reserve in the farmers' hands, and on easier cables. May was a shade to 1/4@ 14c lower at 741/607414c. Estimates of only 1,200,000 bu shipments from Argentine for the week, a better cash demand and a large to create a bullish sentiment, and there was entire day. Realizing raies caused temporary declines, but the demand was too great for the market withstand and Late in the day. prices gradually adva sold up to 751/2c. on additional buying et gain of le to The close was at 75% 11/sc. Clearances of w. and flour were equal to 372,000 bu. Primary receipts were 350,000 bu, against 504,000 bu a year ago. Minneapolis and Duluth reported receipts of 211 cars, which, with local receipts of 20 cars-none of contract grade-made a total of 231 cars, against 320 cars last week and 301 cars a year ago. Trading in corn was of a somewhat desultory nature, with the dullness quite pronounced at times, but prices were influenced largely by the action of wheat, and the undertone was strong. The weather was still unfavorable and cables were steady.

and when shorts tried to cover they were forced to bid up sharply, especially for May. An easier feeling developed later, but the late strength in wheat caused another advance, and the close was firm, with May 1/4c higher at 47%@47%c, after selling benone. The market is on a standstill, prices so tween 47%c and 47%c. Receipts were 278 Oats were dull and featureless, but the strength in other grains caused a firm mand at the start, but the market became listless. The close was about steady, with May 1/3c higher at 341/2@345/3c, after ranging between 341/4c and 341/3c. Receipts were 121

There was little corn for sale at the outset,

Provisions were firm early, in sympathy with the strong hog market, but scattered liquidation and a weak close at the yards caused a reaction, and the close was steady. A feature of the trading was a good demand for lard from foreign houses. May pork closed 74c lower at $18.324. Lard was unchanged at $10.221/2, and ribs unchanged Estimated receipts for to-morrow: Wheat, 20 cars; corn, 235 cars; oats, 175 cars; hogs,

WARRANT FOR PROMOTER

ORDER ISSUED FOR THE ARREST OF WHITAKER WRIGHT,

Who Was Director of the London and Globe Finance Corporation, and Has Fled to the Continent.

LONDON, March 11 .- A warrant for the arrest of Whitaker Wright, director of the London and Globe Finance Corporation, limited, was issued to-day. Following the order issued yesterday to the official receiver of the corporation by Justice Buckley, of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, to criminally prosecute Mr. Wright, a summons for the latter was obtained yesterday evening, but when an officer went to his residence to serve it he was continent on account of his health, hence the issue of the warrant. In the House of Commons to-day Swift MacNeil, Irish Nationalist, asked Home Secretary Ackersbu. Spot firmer; No. 2 red, 80% c elevator. Douglas what steps were being taken to prevent Mr. Wright from escaping justice. The secretary declined to answer such a > question without notification. The London Globe Finance Corporation. of which the late Lord Dufferin was the nominal president, went to smash on the 29th of December, 1900. The crash was, in a measure, provoked by the Boer war and its attendant financial stringency, and when went to the wall. The firms compelled to close out their affairs were: Haggard, Hale & Pixley, Gale & Driver, Douglas, jr. & Co., Cornfoot Bros., F. A. Cohen, Blackey & Buckingham, Gunn & Aubrey, Richards & Sloper, Baker & Smith, F. C. Wells & Co., Flower & Co., F. Boully & Co. and Bartholomew & Jack. The real head of the London and Globe was Whitaker Wright, who arranged all the reports made by the president and all the other officials. The ostensible purpose of the London and Globe Company was to facilitate investments by the shareholders in various enterprises, ranging from mines developed and undeveloped to street-railways and water works. So long as Whitaker Wright kept his or rather the company's funds invested in concerns far away the shareholders appeared satisfied, but just before the actual trouble began it was reported that the London and Globe had seen fit to invest about $3,750,000 in the Bakerstreet and Waterloo underground railway. This was in London, and gave the shareholders something substantial to figure on. and they could see nothing beyond promises. Then came stories of falling prices in west Australians and in the Canadian holdings of the company, and no end of subsidiary concerns organized by Whitaker Wright and then sold to the London and Globe. It is charged now that many of these concerns he formed for the sole purpose of putting the stocks on the London and Globe books and withdrawing the equivalent in funds to start other schemes. When the smash came the London and Globe had invested in various enterprises over $15,000,000. How it had all been done no one but Whitaker Wright seemed to know, and Lord Dufferin frankly admitted that while he was technically responsible for it all he knew nothing of the company's af-fairs beyond what had been told him by Whitaker Wright. It is more than likely that the prosecution of Whitaker Wright on criminal charges will bring to light new features of a gigantic venture and a gigan-tic failure, that in more favorable times might have been a success. According to Whitaker Wright's wife he went to Egypt five weeks ago for his

ment's intention to bring Whitaker Wright

CESSATION OF THE RAINS HELPS ALL LINES OF BUSINESS.

Dry Goods Active and Firm-Poultry Is Weakening-Grain Movement Is Very Light.

With the cessation of the rains yesterday trade was more active. Grocers were busy. There was a liberal movement of coffees and sugars, but the market is badly demoralized. It is said the breaking of the local agreement by two or three of the wholesale houses is responsible for the demoralization and both sugar and coffee are now handled at a loss. Canned goods are moving slowly despite the fact that prices are weak and concessions are made to effect sales. Wholesale confectioners are enjoying a fair trade and the prices of last week, which were a shade higher, are well maintained. Provisions are active and prices in most lines are steady. There never has been a season when home demand was so heavy as for the last few months. Export demand has improved, but the difficulty of getting cars affects ship-ments. On Commission row there seems to be a surplus of apples of inferior quality which are selling at prices that the buyer is willing to give, while choice apples which are free movers, command goo prices. Cabbage and onions are selling we at low figures for this time of year. Poultry, for the first time in many months, carries an easier tone and indications are for a break in prices, as receipts are larger and demand will be less. Eggs are weak at recent reductions and by next probably will be quoted as low as 10 or 11 cents a dozen. Choice butter is in active request and prices are firm, but inferior stock, of which there seems to be a large supply, is easier. Cheese is scarce and so long as present conditions continue high prices will be maintained. The pr market from now on will depend much on weather conditions. Should the mild temperature continue prices will break, but cold, disagreeable weather would probably mean a shade higher prices. Dry goods houses are doing a good business.. Prices are very firm at the revision of yesterday. The wholesale houses have a large and very attractive line of goods. American prints, especially, are in unusually attractive patterns. Flour market carries an easy tone at the range of last week. De-mand is active and there is no hesitation on the part of buyers to pay the prices quoted. Freight congestion, which has interfered so long with regular transportation, has affected the cerealine markets to such an extent as to make it difficult for jobbers to keep supplies up to the point

Indianapolis Grain Market. Condition of country roads considered and the fact that the grain movement is now largely from elevators and store houses, receipts are up to expectations, but so active is the demand that were the arrivals much heavier they would be readily taken.
